ABOUT US

Karakoram Safaris operates as a specialized outfitting company, organizing big-game expeditions in some of the most demanding mountain regions of Asia and Europe.

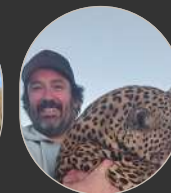

Our core focus is high-mountain trophy hunting. We provide technical safaris for species such as, Markhors, Marco Polo sheep, Argalis, Ibex and chamois, managing all specialized logistics, permits, and professional guides with an in-depth knowledge of the terrain.

We apply an ethical and sustainable game management model, collaborating with local communities and conservation programs. Our experience guarantees safe and effective planning.

For those seeking this experience, we also facilitate safaris in top-tier African areas, maintaining our standard of professionalism and reliability. We manage your comprehensive hunting journey from one continent to another.
