ABOUT US

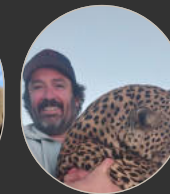

HUNTS BR operates as a specialized outfitting company dedicated to premier big-game hunting expeditions across some of the world's most iconic and challenging destinations.

In addition to our strong presence in Africa, we also organize select hunting adventures in Argentina, Australia, Canada (Northern Provinces), Alaska, New Zealand, and Mexico—destinations known for their unique species, wild landscapes, and the demanding nature of their hunts.

Our focus is on delivering high-quality, professionally managed expeditions, handling all logistics, permits, local coordination, and professional guiding where required. We work closely with trusted outfitters and local partners to ensure safe, well-organized hunts that offer authentic experiences in some of the most remarkable hunting areas in the world.

CANADA

Canada offers one of the world's most extraordinary polar wilderness hunting experiences, with immense Arctic landscapes defined by frozen tundra, drifting sea ice and vast remote territories where wildlife thrives in some of the harshest environments on Earth.

In the far northern regions of the Canadian Arctic, hunters can experience the unique challenge of pursuing the legendary Polar Bear across the ice, guided by experienced local trackers and traditional knowledge passed down through generations. These remote polar ecosystems are also home to species such as Arctic Fox, Caribou and Snow Geese, creating a truly unforgettable adventure in one of the planet's last great wilderness frontiers.

ALASKA

Alaska remains one of North America's most iconic big game hunting destinations, particularly along the wild and remote Alaska Peninsula, a region famous for its immense landscapes and extraordinary wildlife populations.

This rugged coastal wilderness is home to some of the largest Brown Bears in the world, along with healthy populations of Elk and other big game species. The vast tundra and mountain terrain also offer exceptional hunting opportunities for Willow Ptarmigan, the region's classic snow grouse. With its dramatic scenery, remote camps and true frontier atmosphere, Alaska delivers one of the most authentic hunting experiences anywhere in the world.

AUSTRALIA

Australia is one of the Southern Hemisphere's most unique hunting destinations, offering immense open landscapes, professional wildlife management and thriving populations of free-range game species across vast stations and remote wilderness areas.

From the tropical north to the rugged outback and expansive cattle stations, Australia provides diverse habitats supporting species such as Water Buffalo, Banteng, Scrub Bull, Camel, Donkey, Wild Boar, Fallow Deer, Red Deer, Rusa and Sambar. These wide-open environments allow for exciting spot-and-stalk hunting experiences in truly wild settings.

NUEVA ZELANDA

New Zealand is widely regarded as one of the world's premier mountain hunting destinations, famous for its dramatic alpine landscapes, well-managed game populations and exceptional trophy quality.

From the Southern Alps to vast high-country stations, the country offers spectacular terrain for hunting species such as Red Stag, Tahr, Chamois, Fallow Deer, Wapiti and Arapawa Ram. Its combination of breathtaking scenery, professional guiding and world-class trophies makes New Zealand a truly unforgettable hunting experience.

ARGENTINA

Argentina is one of the world's premier destinations for high-volume wingshooting and classic big game hunting, offering an unmatched combination of extraordinary bird shooting and the vast wilderness of Patagonia.

In the central and northern regions, Argentina is globally famous for its incredible populations of Dove and Duck, providing some of the finest wingshooting on the planet, with days that can offer thousands of shots in traditional and well-organized drives.

Further south, the wild landscapes of Patagonia offer outstanding big game hunting in breathtaking scenery. Here hunters can pursue magnificent Red Stag during the roaring season, along with Wild Boar, Axis Deer and other species across immense ranches and remote mountain valleys, creating one of South America's most authentic hunting experiences.

The second sheep is partially visible behind it. The background features a dramatic mountain range with steep, rocky slopes and patches of snow under a soft, hazy sky. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

MEXICO

Northern Mexico is one of North America's most prestigious destinations for mountain hunting, particularly renowned for its exceptional Desert Bighorn Sheep. The rugged mountain ranges and vast desert landscapes of Sonora and Baja California provide the perfect habitat for these magnificent animals.

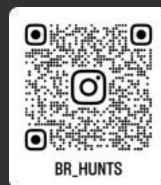

These remote and dramatic terrains demand true mountain hunting skills, offering challenging spot-and-stalk opportunities in steep rocky canyons and expansive desert ranges. Thanks to strict wildlife management programs and carefully controlled permits, Mexico consistently produces some of the finest Desert Bighorn trophies in the world, making it one of the most sought-after hunts on the continent.
